

I am of the strong opinion that requiring any kind of "backdoor" in ISP or telephone equipment of any kind is a violation of my civil rights related to privacy as described by the Constitution of the US.